

Assistant Professor, Social Work

The University of Northern Iowa's Department of Social Work invites applications for a full-time tenure track position at the rank of Assistant Professor, pending budget approval. The successful candidate's responsibilities include teaching three course sections per semester; participating in service to the University and community; scholarship production; and student advisement. The department offers programs at B.A. and M.S.W. levels and qualified candidates must be able to teach across the two programs.

Required qualifications include a master's degree in social work from a CSWE-accredited program plus a doctorate in social work or a related area (ABDs will be considered with evidence of degree completion by spring 2018); ability to teach research methods at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Previous teaching experience; ability to teach online; and areas of distinction in teaching, scholarship or community engagement including grant writing and/or marketing also preferred.

The University of Northern Iowa provides a high quality and diverse educational experience, purposefully guiding students to find and develop their strengths and prepare them for success after college. Building on its historic excellence in teacher education, the university has developed outstanding programs in business, natural sciences, humanities and fine arts, and social and behavioral sciences with advanced degrees available in many programs. The University's attractive size, approximately 12,000 students, allows UNI to offer faculty, facilities, and academic choices characteristic of a much larger university while retaining a friendly, small-college atmosphere on a park-like campus. UNI has been recognized for the past 18 years as one of the "Best Midwest Universities" by U.S. News & World Report. Located in Cedar Falls/Waterloo, the campus is comprised of more than 40 buildings on 940 acres. For more information, visit www.uni.edu.

Pre-employment background checks are required. To apply, visit <http://jobs.uni.edu>. Applications received by October 27, 2017 will receive full consideration. UNI actively seeks to enhance diversity and is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. The University encourages applications from persons of color, women, individuals living with disabilities, and protected veterans. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, color, creed, disability, gender identity, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, protected veteran status, or any other basis protected by federal and/or state law.

UNI is a tobacco-free campus.