CSBS Senate Minutes
Monday, Feb. 18, 2013
315 Sabin
3:15 pm

Present: Chuck Holcombe (History), Jim McCullagh (Social Work), Andrew Gilpin (Psych), Tim Strauss (Geography), Elaine Eshbaugh (SAHS—Vice chair and secretary), Taifa Yu (Political Science), Cyndi Dunn (SAC--Chair), Richard Featherstone (Interim Associate Dean), Brenda Bass (Interim CSBS Dean)

Crew, Li, Baker, Rhineburger-Dunn, and Briggs are present from Dept of SAC regarding proposed curriculum changes. Barnes and Lynch are present from SAHS regarding proposed curriculum changes.

1. Minutes from Feb. 11, 2013, approved with minor correction (20-25 students in Cornerstone sections rather than 20)
2. Status of elections
   a. Need senator for university senate: 3 year term
      i. CAN be from a unit that is already represented b. Need someone for LAC committee; Dunn has spoken to Gute from SAHS who may be interested
   c. Need someone for Graduate Council 3. Curriculum
   a. SAC
      i. Anthropology
         1. Minor changes
            a. Drop course that hasn’t been taught
            b. Minor change in pre-req in ANTH 3103 Religion, Magic, and Witchcraft
            c. New course: ANTH 2401 Tribal Religions—focuses on selected global tribes 2. Motion to approve ANTH changes; motion passes ii. Criminology
         1. Change “fall” to “variable” for White Collar Crime CRIM 2112
         2. Change of pre-req for Ethics course CRIM 3314
         3. Change in minor; any course with CRIM prefix can count—intended to minimize student requests and give students more options
         4. Certificate changes to Crime Mapping and Analysis Certificate—removing two courses and adding two courses based on what is being offered and anticipated future offerings
         5. Motion to approve CRIM changes; motion passes iii. Sociology
1. Several courses have pre-req changes to make pre-reqs consistent 2. New course proposals
   a. Adding internship option for SOC students SOC 4485
   b. Adding pro-seminar type of course (Career and Professional Development SOC 4200)
      i. Will teach professional skills ii. Will give students more applied choices iii. 1-3 credit hours? Dunn will check with SAC curriculum chair
   c. Course change to SOC 4071 Feminist Theory: adding new option(s) as a pre-req
   d. Major restatement: adding more options and simplifying the major, less categorization 3. Motion to approve SOC changes; motion passes
   b. SAHS
      i. Counseling COUN 6291: change in number of credits for internship, “clean up” change
      ii. Family Studies & Gerontology
         1. The Money Course FAM SERV 1075: elective course that doesn’t count for any major or minor; 1 credit
         2. Family Financial Counseling and Literacy FAM 3175/5175: new course that has been taught experimentally
         3. Families and End of Life Issues FAM SERV/ GERO 2111: new course that has been taught experimentally through Continuing Education; focuses on more “applied” examination of death and dying
         4. Changes in major/minors in Gero and Family reflect new courses
         5. Motion to approve Family & Gero curriculum changes; motion passes
      iii. TAPP
         1. Drop Intro to TAPP and replace with TEXDSGN 1004 Fashion Culture and Industry
            a. This is being reviewed as a LAC category 5 course as well 2. Change course name from Intro to Textile Materials to Textile Science
            a. Not a content change, just title
            b. Dunn will see if she can change “short” title which was not changed in system
         3. Fashion Trend Analysis: change of pre-req due to change of intro course to TEXDSGN 1004
         4. Fashion Design: Flat Pattern and Draping--name change to reflect what is taught in course
5. Major and minor restated to reflect the above changes 6. Motion to approve TAPP curriculum changes; motion passes
   iv. Interior Design
      1. Four very minor changes in course descriptions, “clean up” changes to INTDSGN 2063, 2067, 3065, and 3127 2. Motion to approve ID curriculum changes; motion passes

4. Comments from the Dean
   a. Featherstone is keeping a close eye on enrollment numbers
   b. Yu brings up Cornerstone and our continuing Cornerstone discussion
      i. Looking for data (perhaps from FOE) to support Cornerstone; Dunn will ask Chatham-Carpenter ii. This is not a consultation; we are being asked to “approve”
   c. Good showing for CSBS and UNI as a whole at Panther Caucus Day
   d. Bartlett Hall on schedule as far as Bass knows
   e. WGS curriculum passed last Monday; Geography is up next Monday
   f. Comments on budget
      i. No salary savings from Price Lab—just program and building savings
      ii. McCullagh comments that tearing down Price Lab will be costly iii. Bass believes we are better off this year compared to last year in terms of budget
   g. New president will be on campus next week

5. Motion to adjourn; motion passes a. Meeting adjourns at 4:48 pm

Respectfully submitted, Elaine M. Eshbaugh