INTRODUCTION
Considered an invaluable component of the student’s professional education and development, the field experience program is governed by the mission, overall aims, foundation curriculum, and advanced curriculum concentrations of the MSW program. A primary aim of the program is to educate and prepare professional social workers to assume advanced competent practice and leadership roles in a dynamic, complex, and multicultural society. Skill development progresses from generalist to more advanced techniques. Opportunities are afforded students to apply theoretical knowledge and skills learned in the classroom to actual practice situations. Selecting from an array of field placement sites, students construct individualized learning plans to meet their educational goals. Students benefit from faculty guidance and support during the process, as well as that given by experienced practitioners within the community.

The MSW Foundation Field Instruction Manual is the guide that agency instructors, faculty liaisons, and foundation graduate students use throughout the placement experience. It contains the official policies, procedures, and guidelines currently in place for the field placement experience. The aim of the manual is to guide and assist all those involved in the field placement experience to understand the structure of this educational component of professional training. Therefore, be sure to read it carefully and seek clarification, when needed, from the director of field instruction.

Under the supervision of experienced practitioners, students demonstrate their ability to meet the specific competencies of the field placement experience as well as the expectations of agency, school and profession. Graduate social work education is considered a professional educational program and as such, field education is the capstone experience for students in the social work program at UNI.

GRADUATE SOCIAL WORK DEPARTMENT MISSION STATEMENT
The mission of the University of Northern Iowa Masters of Social Work Program is to provide students with a trauma-informed foundation that prepares them to identify, evaluate, and address the personal, social, and systemic conditions that perpetuate individual, family, organizational and community-based trauma using evidence-informed interventions. Our curriculum is based on the perspective that effective change within this paradigm requires upholding the dignity and worth of the individual, advocating for human rights and social and economic justice, challenging oppression, promoting human relationships, practicing multi-cultural responsiveness, and identifying factors that mitigate the effects of trauma and enhance strengths, competencies, and resilience. Students obtain an in-depth understanding of these values and practices through in-person and online coursework and instruction that promotes critical thinking, self-reflection, and ethical decision making, along with intensive experiential learning through local, state, national, and international field placements. (Spring 2020)

NASW CODE OF ETHICS/ETHICAL VALUES & PRINCIPLES
(As taken from the NASW Code of Ethics Approved by the NASW Delegate Assembly on February 19, 2021, and November 6, 2020. Implemented 2021)
Professional ethics are at the core of social work. The profession has an obligation to articulate its basic values, ethical principles, and ethical standards. The NASW Code of Ethics sets forth these values, principles, and standards to guide social workers’ conduct. The Code is relevant to all social workers and social work students, regardless of their professional functions, the settings in which they work, or the populations they serve.

VALUE: Service
Ethical Principle: Social workers’ primary goal is to help people in need and to address social problems.
Social workers elevate service to others above self-interest. Social workers draw on their knowledge, values, and skills to help people in need and to address social problems. Social workers are encouraged to volunteer some portion of their professional skills with no expectation of significant financial return (pro bono service).

VALUE: Social Justice
Ethical Principle: Social workers challenge social injustice. Social workers pursue social change, particularly with and on behalf of vulnerable and oppressed individuals and groups of people. Social workers’ social change efforts are focused primarily on issues of poverty, unemployment, discrimination, and other forms of social injustice. These activities seek to promote sensitivity to and knowledge about oppression and cultural and ethnic diversity. Social workers strive to ensure access to needed information, services, and resources; equality of opportunity; and meaningful participation in decision making for all people.

VALUE: Dignity and Worth of the Person
Ethical Principle: Social workers respect the inherent dignity and worth of the person.
Social workers treat each person in a caring and respectful fashion, mindful of individual differences and cultural and ethnic diversity. Social workers promote clients’ socially responsible self-determination. Social workers seek to enhance clients’ capacity and opportunity to change and to address their own needs. Social workers are cognizant of their dual responsibility to clients and to the broader society. They seek to resolve conflicts between clients’ interests and the broader society’s interests in a socially responsible manner consistent with the values, ethical principles, and ethical standards of the profession.

VALUE: Importance of Human Relationships
Ethical Principle: Social workers recognize the central importance of human relationships.
Social workers understand that relationships between and among people are an important vehicle for change. Social workers engage people as partners in the helping process. Social workers seek to strengthen relationships among people in a purposeful effort to promote, restore, maintain, and enhance the well-being of individuals, families, social groups, organizations, and communities.

VALUE: Integrity
Ethical Principle: Social workers behave in a trustworthy manner.
Social workers are continually aware of the profession’s mission, values, ethical principles, and ethical standards and practice in a manner consistent with them. Social workers should take measures to care for themselves professionally and personally. Social workers act honestly and responsibly and promote ethical practices on the part of the organizations with which they are affiliated.

VALUE: Competence
Ethical Principle: Social workers practice within their areas of competence and develop and enhance their professional expertise. Social workers continually strive to increase their professional knowledge and skills and to apply them in practice. Social workers should aspire to contribute to the knowledge base of the profession.

FIELD PLACEMENT DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

Field instruction is an integral and essential component of Social Work education. It provides a learning experience in a setting where the student has the opportunity to integrate curriculum content, to question the relationship of theory and practice, to develop skills in interpersonal relationships and intervention techniques, to participate in the role of social worker, and to evaluate oneself in that role. There have been many changes in the profession as the trend in social work is toward greater diversity in roles, settings, methods, and clientele. These changes together with the requirements for being a generalist social worker in both urban and rural areas require that field instruction provide learning experiences which will prepare students for a profession that is developing and emerging toward the future. The student is provided with a variety of experiences which foster the development of skills through which s/he can begin to be a self-directed learner who can work with confidence, exercise independent judgment, and respond to a diversity of roles and responsibilities.

GOALS OF FIELD INSTRUCTION

1. To offer learning experiences which provide the opportunity for students to use and test the knowledge and skills derived from the curriculum in learning the professional competencies of generalist social workers, through active participation in the delivery of human services.
2. To provide settings where students can develop the interpersonal and communication skills essential for professional Social Work.
3. To help students test themselves and their commitment to social work values and attitudes, and to evaluate their own preparation for the profession.
4. To prepare students to identify the policies, practices, services, and procedures that interfere with effective delivery of human services and to develop strategies for change.
5. To prepare students to develop the skills and attitudes of a self-directed learner.

*CREDIT AND COURSE SEQUENCING

The MSW program at UNI offers a 60 credit hour, two-year curriculum for students without an undergraduate social work degree from a CSWE accredited bachelors’ program, and a 34 credit hour minimum specialized practice curriculum for students with a bachelor’s degree from a CSWE accredited bachelors’ program. This manual will address the foundation level MSW student field requirements. An extended programming sequence for each may be developed. The first year of the two year program contains 26 credit hours of foundational social work master’s courses, as outlined below. The courses offered in the second year of the two year program and the specialized practice program are identical. Once the foundation year is completed, students enter the Trauma Informed Practice Specialization. The MSW program at UNI is a non-thesis program.

MSW Foundation students are required to register for 8 credit hours of field instruction, 4 credits for the field experience and 4 credits for field seminar. Field students will complete 400 hours at a field site during the Spring semester of their Foundation year, which is approximately 25 hours per week. Students begin their field placement during the first week of classes of the Spring semester and can continue through finals week. Students who want exceptions, such as beginning placement prior to the start of the semester, ending a placement early, or extending placement beyond the end of those semesters, can do so only with the full knowledge and consent of the faculty liaison and agency instructor. Students may complete and count up to five (5) hours of agency orientation activities prior to the start of their field experience. Any more time required over five (5) hours need to be cleared with the field director and agency instructor.

 The field program does not grant social work course credit or field hours for life experience or previous social work related experience. The field hours can only be completed through the field instruction course. (Accreditation Standard 3.1.5)

Please refer to MSW Specialized Practice Field Manual for Specialization Curriculum

POLICIES/Criteria/PROCEDURES FOR PLACEMENT
Prior to starting the field experience, MSW Foundation students must be cleared by the Field Director (Accreditation Standard 2.2.6). This includes the following requirements:

1. Admitted into the graduate program.
2. Attend a field orientation session.
3. Meet with the field office for an individualized field session.
4. Resume reviewed by the graduate college.
5. Be in good academic standing (3.0 grade point average or better, no more than 6 credits with a C, no course incompletes).
7. Secured an approved site with a signed contract.
8. The field program does not grant social work course credit or field hours for life experience or previous social work related experience. The field hours can only be completed through the field instruction course. (Accreditation Standard 3.1.5)
Once students attend a field orientation session, they are provided access to the department’s Intern Placement Tracking (IPT) system. This online system allows the student to access field profiles of approved sites. The profiles contain information on the site’s mission, population served, programs where the student may be placed, point of contact for interested students, point of contact for field supervision, supervision requirements, what type of intern the agency can support, typical field placement working days and hours, transportation requirements, and brief examples of internship experiences for the type of social work student(s) the site is approved to support. The student reaches out to the agency contact for field placement as outlined in the profile. The student schedules and attends the agency interview. Once an internship offer is accepted by the student, a contract is signed.

FIELD SEMINAR AND ASSIGNMENTS
During the field experience, the student is required to participate in field seminars led by their faculty liaison. The primary objective of the seminar is to reinforce the learning which occurs in the field agency, process how it is linked to classroom instruction, and to provide further socialization to professional competency and confidence. Seminars will be held by arrangement with the faculty liaison every other week for no less than a total of 12 contact hours. Seminar topics are at the discretion of the faculty liaison based on the student needs within the seminar grouping, with the exception of safety issues, use of supervision and the agency presentation.

Time spent participating in seminars DO NOT count towards field experience hours. Seminar is a graded component of the field experience. Components graded are at the discretion of the faculty liaison and include attendance at and active participation in scheduled seminars.

Students will have various assignments to complete during their field experience. The assignments established by the Department’s Field Education Committee include, but are not limited to:

1. Learning Plan: Students with direction and guidance from agency field instructors are to complete a learning plan or a list of expected learning experiences, which include duties, responsibilities, and specific competencies within the first three weeks of their field experience. The student, agency instructor and faculty liaison will sign off on the learning plan. (See below)

2. Summary of Learning: Students will submit to their agency instructor and faculty liaison summaries of learning to assist the student in linking theory and field. The student will connect their field experiences to the 31 practice behaviors.

3. Agency Presentation: Students will develop a logic model of the program they are primarily working in the practicum and describe the program’s “theory of change” using the logic model.

4. Log of Field Hours: Due at the end of the field experience and requires signatures of student, agency instructor and faculty liaison.

(Accreditation Standard 2.2.1)

REQUIRED LEARNING EXPERIENCES
A major aspect of evaluation is accomplished through a critique of practice performance in Students construct a learning plan in conjunction with the agency instructor. After the initial construction of the learning plan, the faculty liaison reviews it. It is used as a focus throughout the field experience for agency visits as well as for any issues that may require clarification or problem solving related to student performance or the tasks and assignments given to students. Learning plans spell out what students hope to learn from the field experience, the competencies to be developed, the responsibilities students assume, the tasks students intend to complete, and the time frame in which this all takes place. The learning plan is individualized to address the goals and objectives of the student within a specific practice setting, reflecting the goals and objectives identified by the University’s program for field placement.

Guidelines for Development of the Learning Plan
1. Responsibility for constructing the learning plan is shared equally by the student and the agency instructor. Faculty liaisons provide consultation in the development of the learning plan. The learning plan directly links the 9 core competencies and 31 practice behaviors with their field experience activities.
2. Students should develop a learning plan within the first three (3) weeks at the agency and turn in a copy to the faculty liaison for approval.
3. The learning plan may be modified during field experience but only with the approval of the agency instructor and the faculty liaison.
4. Field activities are developed that reflect the required learning for foundation practice as well as the time frame for placement.
5. Measurement criteria can include written material appropriate to the agency setting that is reviewed by the student, agency instructor, and faculty liaison. Direct observation of the student’s work is expected. Feedback and evaluative information from other agency staff, or community professionals, involved with the student’s efforts should be incorporated into the evaluation criteria.
6. The learning plan provides important content for supervision meetings that the student has with the agency instructor. Activities the student engages in relate to desired goal attainment. It further creates a basis for the student evaluation process.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES THAT COUNT TOWARDS FIELD HOURS
Travel Time: Students often travel to meetings, clients’ homes, and other agencies in the course of their field experience. Students may count the time used for this travel during their “agency day.” However, students may not count the time they travel to and from the agency from their place of residence that starts and concludes their “agency day.”

Professional Development Opportunities: Students often have the opportunity to attend professional development training during their time in field placements. Students may count the time spent at these trainings, provided that the agency instructor has approved the training if the training is of a professional nature related to social work and likely to enhance student development as a professional. Students may not count any time involved in overnight stays or other time associated with training other than the actual training hours and travel time of two hours or more, to and from the training.

TRANSPORTATION AND SAFETY ISSUES

Use of your personal vehicle may be expected during your field experience. Please refer to the agency profile for agency specific requirements around use of your personal vehicle for completing the field experience requirements of the agency, which may include but is not limited to traveling to meetings, traveling to professional development sessions, traveling to client homes, and transporting clients. It is recommended that the student inquire about personal vehicle use at the time of the interview to determine if the site is a good match for their educational needs and personal resources. The university is self-insured for liability purposes; however, that coverage does not provide liability or vehicle coverage for student internships.

In some client situations, there may be a risk of violent or unpredictable behavior. Students will be provided a thorough orientation to the policies and practices relevant to personnel issues, personal safety issues, guidelines for home visits, transportation requests, and specialized training needed to carry out the tasks of the field experience. (Accreditation Standard 2.2.7)

EVALUATION OF FIELD LEARNING

Two evaluation conferences are held with the student, agency instructor, and the faculty liaison. The standard by which a student is to be compared, by the end of the placement, is that of a new beginning-level social worker. During the midterm and final evaluation, the agency instructor is asked to rate the student on their social work skills (see below). Evaluations are completed through an online Intern Placement Tracking system (IPT) in which training of and access to is provided to all parties by the field director. The results of the evaluations are shared with the student and faculty liaison. If the student disagrees with the assessment, they will state that disagreement in writing. A meeting between the student, agency instructor, and faculty liaison will be held to discuss any disagreements. At the end of the field experience, students complete a field program evaluation. The field program evaluation is the student's feedback regarding preplacement activities as well as field experiences, and may lead to field experience changes and improvements. The credit or no credit assigned is based on the faculty liaison’s overall assessment of the student’s performance in the field placement in conjunction with the agency instructor’s assessment and other submitted materials such as student logs, seminar participation, and written work that integrates the agency field experience with classroom instruction.

GRADING

Credit/No Credit: Field instruction is taken on a credit or no credit basis. The faculty liaison is responsible for awarding the credit or no credit. No letter grade is given. Assessment of student's agency performance will be based on evaluations completed by the agency instructor twice during the field experience.

Graded: In addition to completing field satisfactorily, students will be graded on their completion of required assignments (i.e. Summaries of Learning, Agency Presentation, Seminars).

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING A FIELD SITE

Social Work knowledge, skills, attitudes and values are exclusive to Social Work. Some elements of this constellation are shared by related professionals and may provide an appropriate setting for a bachelor-level social work field placement experience. The general criteria for the selection of a field experience placement setting is that it provides an opportunity for the student to acquire the knowledge, skills, attitudes and values important for a beginning generalist social work practitioner. The field director approves agency settings as field placement sites using, but limited to, the specific criteria below:

1. Provides case and program responsibility for students in placement;
2. Directly serves clients (individuals, families, groups and communities) and allows the student to learn about the needs and problems of people through social interaction with clients, peers, and other professionals;
3. Has the potential for developing a field experience with diversity of methodology and interventive strategies that reflect the generalist approach in Social Work education and core competencies;
4. Provides the student with an opportunity to complement Social Work curriculum content and reinforce classroom learning;
5. Is interested in and accepts the objectives of the Department of Social Work and will work cooperatively with it;
6. Demonstrates interest in students and their professional development; and
7. Expose students to social services and health systems, their relationship to other systems, and to the needs for change in systems or development of new systems.
8. Has been in operation for at least one (1) calendar year.

(Accreditation Standard 2.2.7)

PROCESS FOR APPROVING A FIELD SITE
Potential field sites are brought to the attention of the field director. The field director and agency personnel authorized to approve field experiences for social work interns complete an agency profile, which highlights the site’s mission, population served, programs where the student may be placed, point of contact for interested students, point of contact for field supervision, supervision requirements, what type of intern the agency can support, typical field placement working days and hours, transportation requirements, and brief examples of internship experiences for the type of social work student(s) the site is approved to support. Once the site is approved and the site has been in operation for at least one (1) calendar year, it is placed on the listing of approved sites shared with social work intern students.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING AN AGENCY INSTRUCTOR
Agency instructors, employed by community agencies, are selected by the agency on the basis of their practice competence and their positive approach to a social work education. Agency instructors for MSW Foundation field students are to hold a graduate degree in social work from a CSWE-accredited program, plus have at least two years of post-degree experience in the field. For those agency instructors with graduate degrees in a like field, the faculty liaison will have an enhanced role with the field student to ensure the planning, experiences, supervision and evaluation of the student has a social work focus. The agency instructor meets with the student weekly and participates in the mid-term and final evaluations. The agency instructors are the linchpins around which the whole program revolves. Although they do not have University appointments, the contributions they (and their agencies) make to Social Work education is incalculable. Further criteria for selection of appropriate agency instructors include:

1. Interest in the professional Social Work education of students;
2. Ability to instruct and supervise students;
3. Perception of learning as a process of developing confidence and independent judgment in the student, and allowing increasing responsibility and authority to the student in accordance with their demonstrated competence; and
4. Exhibit attitudes and values important in the delivery of services and the Social Work profession.
DISTANCE FIELD PLACEMENTS

Field placements outside the State of Iowa will be considered but need to meet certain conditions and requirements. The field director and student will work collaboratively to identify an appropriate agency. However, final decision about the appropriateness of any distance field placements rests with the field director. Distance field placements will go through the same agency approval process as any local agency. This includes any sites that are outside the boundaries of the United States.

Per 3.14 International Study Programs policy, any UNI student involved in a university-related activity abroad, must register with the UNI Study Abroad office. Please refer to the UNI Study Abroad Center’s website at www.uni.edu/studyabroad for information regarding application fees, program fees, health insurance requirements and individual safety issues.

For any student that has secured a distance field placement site, they are required to complete a Distance Field Placement Request form and sign a Distance Placement Acknowledgment form that states their awareness that the student is responsible for all expenses that are associated with securing living arrangements, transportation to and from the location, ongoing living expenses, and any costs incurred on their behalf relating to the field placement, such as liability insurance, malpractice insurance, background checks and/or specialized training or other required training. In addition, should the distance field placement be disrupted, the student acknowledges the disruption may impact the timely manner in which the student can complete the required field placement experience hours, may result in additional cost/expense to the student, may delay the intended graduation date and/or may result in nonrefundable tuition paid.

EMPLOYMENT BASED PLACEMENTS

Students are able to complete field experiences at agencies in which they are currently employed. The agency has to be an approved site for an undergraduate field experience, the current job responsibilities have to be different than the field experience responsibilities, and the employment supervisor must be different than the field experience supervisor. Students who are interested in exploring whether their agency of employment can be used for their field experience need to reach out to the field director as documentation is required to show that the employment duties and supervision will be different than the field experience and supervision. (Accreditation Standard 2.2.11)

DOCUMENTATION/PROOF OF COVERAGE

Field sites may conduct a background check on students prior to offering an internship position or request that one is conducted and submitted to their agency. Certain field sites, like hospitals and health care centers, may require proof of professional liability insurance, health insurance, health checks and/or certain immunizations, and/or specialized trainings (e.g., occupational exposure to blood borne pathogens, basic cardiac life support skills). If a student is required to transport clients, whether in their own vehicle or agency vehicle, proof of care insurance may be requested. Unless the field site is going to provide for these requirements, it is the responsibility of the student, including covering the cost, to satisfy them.

It is recommended that students inquire about background checks, health care checks, professional liability coverage and/or specialized training that is required of the student for placement. Resources regarding how to obtain those required documents on campus at a reduced rate or in the community can be found online at www.uni.edu/csbs/socialwork/field-instruction or through consultation with the field director.

SOCIAL WORK PRACTICA FINANCIAL SUPPORT POLICY

Field Instruction is an educational experience and not a work experience, however the Social Work Department at UNI realizes that students often face significant financial hardships while pursuing their university education. Therefore, the department does allow financial support for students in practicum placements. Wherever possible, agencies are encouraged to provide students with parking, mileage reimbursement, and other reimbursement for costs incurred while discharging agency responsibilities related to the field experience. It is important to underscore that in a financially supported field experience, as in all field experiences, final authority for tasks and assignments given to the student, rests with the faculty liaison.

In some circumstances, students would have the opportunity to have their tuition, books, and/or other educational costs paid for through a grant, scholarship, stipend, agency professional development plan or other educationally focused financial support program offered by the university or practicum agency. These funding opportunities are considered acceptable to the Social Work Department in supporting students, and may be a critical factor in enabling students to obtain a social work degree. Any financial support proposed by agencies, related to the field experience, will be considered but must meet all established guidelines set forth by field instruction at UNI. The main purpose of the guidelines is to ensure that educational requirements are met and that agency practices, related to financial support, do not have a negative impact on the educational process of the student. Financially supported field experiences are subject to the following stipulations:

1. Planning and prior approval are required. Requests for financially supported placements are made to the field director. All forms required from the student and agency must be delivered to, and reviewed by, the field director before a decision permitting the financial support can be made.

2. Student fieldwork must be educationally oriented, designed to meet the educational needs of the student and the educational objectives of the Social Work Department, as outlined for field instruction.

3. When an agency proposes a financially supported field experience for a student, the final placement decision rests with, and is controlled by the Social Work Department's field instruction.

4. The decision to offer financial support, and the amount offered, is entirely up to individual agencies. Some agencies might receive grants that allow them to offer students financial support. Some may have other financial means to offer students financial support; these funds should be paid directly to students as a stipend.

5. Agencies’ ability to offer, or not offer, financial support, will not affect their standing with the Social Work Department as a field placement site. Agencies approved as placement sites need to continue to meet the criteria established for field instruction.
6. Students in financially supported field experience, and agencies providing the support, must conform to all policies, procedures, and expectations outlined for students in field instruction.

7. The student’s learning plan is used throughout the practicum as an educational tool as well as for any issues that may require clarification or problem solving related to student performance or the tasks and assignments given to the students during field work.

PROCEDURES FOR ADDRESSING FIELD PLACEMENT CHALLENGES

Sometimes during a field placement, issues arise that need to be addressed. It is important to address issues early on and resolve issues in a professional manner. The steps below highlight the process in place for addressing issues.

- Step 3: Faculty Liaison consults with Field Director

Process for the student if they have an issue with their faculty liaison:

Agency supervisors will address any conduct issues with students placed at their agency. If the conduct issues continue, the agency supervisors will notify the faculty liaison assigned to the student. If the conduct issues continue, the faculty liaison can determine if the field director needs to be brought in to assist with the issues through a support plan, or if the student needs to be placed at another site. If a support plan is put into place and the student's conduct continues to be problematic and not aligned with the Social Work program's mission, values and ethics, UNI Academic Ethics/Discipline Policy (http://www.uni.edu/policies/301), and/or UNI Student Code of Conduct Policy (http://www.uni.edu/policies/302), the student may be counseled out of the program. This session is an opportunity for the instructor to consult with faculty about student successes, concerns, and how to best support them. The instructor can also refer the student to various University support programs, which can include but are not limited to: UNI Rob Library, The Learning Center Services, Student Accessibility Services, Office of Compliance and Equity Management, Student Health Clinic, Counseling Center and Student Wellness Service.

Department Policy on Incompletes
A grade of “incomplete” is generally to be discouraged and only employed when faculty conclude that a student is unable to complete assigned course work due to extenuating circumstances. Course requirements that are appropriate for incompletes include, but are not limited to, the requirements in the final 1/6 of the course, final assignments/assessments, and signature assignments. This is not intended for work assigned in the first 12 weeks of the semester. Students must request the course extension in writing to the course instructor. A time frame for completing the course work that is acceptable to both the student and faculty must be agreed upon. It is recommended that this time frame not extend beyond two weeks after the formal course end date. An “I” may convert to an “F” if the incomplete is not resolved by the due date agreed upon. An instructor is under no obligation to accept work from a student after the mutually agreed upon time frame. It is the instructor’s decision whether to re-negotiate the agreement. As in all matters related to grading, an instructor’s decision about a grade-related matter is final.

See also the information relating to incompletes in the current UNI Academic Catalog found at https://catalog.uni.edu/generalinformation/academicregulations/ under Policies Regarding Course Grades of Incomplete.

UNI Web Site Accessibility Guideline
The University of Northern Iowa endorses the guidelines of the World Wide Web Consortium (W3C) as the standard for World Wide Web accessibility and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. http://www.uni.edu/resources/disability

Student Accessibility Services
Student Accessibility Services (SAS) supports the campus community with ensuring an accessible educational environment for students with disabilities. The University of Northern Iowa (UNI) complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (ADAAA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Fair Housing Act, and other applicable federal and state laws and regulations that prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability. Students with disabilities experiencing a barrier to access should connect with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) to request accommodations. SAS views disabilities as an integral part of the rich diversity at UNI and works collaboratively with students, faculty, and staff to create an accessible educational environment for students. UNI faculty are not obligated to provide accommodations for students with disabilities without proper notification from SAS and the student. Students may initiate the accommodation process at any time. However, accommodations are not retroactive, and the process for getting connected takes time. Therefore,
SAS staff always recommends that students initiate the process as soon as possible rather than wait for academic and social-emotional responsibilities to become overly stressful and/or overwhelming. Information is also available at sas.uni.edu. For the safety of our students and staff members, SAS encourages students, faculty, and staff to connect with our office virtually for appointments through Zoom or over the phone. If a student has any questions or concerns at any point in the semester, please contact SAS at (319) 273-2677 Relay 711 or accessibilityservices@uni.edu. A member of the SAS team will be available throughout the week to answer phone calls and respond to emails. For questions related to COVID-19, please visit the SAS COVID-19 Questions page.

Procedures for Termination
Termination Based on Academic Performance: Undergraduate students at the University of Northern Iowa are expected to meet academic standards set by the university and to demonstrate satisfactory academic progress towards earning a degree. Academic Alert and Academic Probation serve to warn students that unless their academic performance improves, they may be placed on Academic Suspension. This policy can be found at https://registrar.uni.edu/students/academic-standing/undergraduate

The University’s Undergraduate Academic Standing Policy highlight the procedures for Academic Alert, Academic Probation, Academic Suspension, Readmission After Suspension. Following a second suspension, the student will be permanently academically suspended if their
https://registrar.uni.edu/students/academic-standing/undergraduate.

Termination Based on Professional Performance: The University has established disciplinary procedures for any student who intentionally commits, attempts to commit, or incites or aids others in committing acts of misconduct. The policy can be found at https://policies.uni.edu/303.

The Undergraduate program provides a case consultation process to address student professional performance in the classroom and in field. If student professional performance issues interfere with the student’s, other student’s abilities to successfully complete the program, and/or the instructor’s ability to teach the course, a remediation process is initiated.

At the University level, any student who is found, after appropriate hearing, to have violated any of the rules of personal conduct may be sanctioned up to and including suspension, expulsion or dismissal. The procedures can be found at https://policies.uni.edu/303.

The Undergraduate’s remediation procedures include a meeting between the student and course instructor (if a classroom issue) or agency instructor (if a field issue) with an action plan to support the student and resolve the issue(s). Step 2 involves a meeting between the student, course instructor and department head (if a classroom issue) or agency instructor (if a field issue) with an action plan developed to support the student and resolve the issue(s). Step 3 involves a meeting between the student and department head (if a classroom issue) or field director (in a field issue) to review lack of progress and alternatives to a social work degree. For field specific issues, an alternative field site may be an option in certain situations prior to being counseling out of the program.

Student supports may include, but are not limited to, classroom or field accommodations, remediation sessions focused on academic and/or performance issues, referrals to the UNI Counseling Center, referrals to Student Accessibility Services, and referrals to the UNI Learning Center.

Student Academic Grievance Policies and Procedures
UNI provides a process for the redress of academic grievances for graduate and undergraduate students within the framework of academic freedom, the integrity of the course, and the prerogative of the faculty to assign grades. These same instruction/assignment alternatives should also extend to field experiences that students may not be able to attend for the same reasons. Questions related to COVID-19 testing should be directed to the Student Health Center COVID line (319) 273-2100, Monday-Friday, 8:00 am - 4:30 pm.
