

“Education and Collaboration: Key Elements for Cultivating & Sustaining Violence Prevention Efforts”

*Alan Heisterkamp and Annette Lynch,
UNI Center for Violence Prevention*

The Center for Violence Prevention at UNI has cultivated strong partnerships with Iowa's domestic and sexual violence victim service agencies, community stakeholders and aspiring allies to improve school and campus culture and climate, increase positive and healthy relationships, and create safer, more supportive neighborhoods and communities.

Established in 2011, the Center for Violence Prevention (CVP) has played a lead role in training and educating Iowa's PreK-16 schools and their respective community partners in bullying and gender violence prevention programming and implementation.

This event is sponsored by the Department of Sociology, Anthropology & Criminology, the School of Applied Human Sciences, CSBS, the Office of the President, & the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning.

Wednesday, November 8, 2017
