

Hall of Excellence

Graduate Student Award

The HOE Graduate Student Award recognizes graduate students who have engaged in significant professional and community activities beyond of the classroom. This award honors students who have demonstrated exceptional engagement in their field of study.

One HOE Graduate Student Award will be granted per cycle.

AWARD ELIGIBILITY & CRITERIA

1. Educational Background:

- Nominees must be currently enrolled in a graduate degree program from 'Athletic Training; Kinesiology & Sport Performance'; 'Leadership in Physical Education'; or 'Philanthropy & Nonprofit Development'.
- Nominees must have a GPA of 3.0 or higher at the time of application.

2. Professional Achievements:

Nominees must have demonstrated engagement in significant professional and community activities beyond of the classroom. This may include, but is not limited to:

- Holding a leadership role in a student or professional organization
- Volunteer work or community service
- Program development or coordination
- Entrepreneurship type initiatives

3. Engagement:

Award recipients are expected to participate in Hall of Excellence activities.

NOMINATION MATERIALS

- Completed Nomination Form: This can be a faculty member or self-nomination.
- Two Letters:
 - Candidate's Cover Letter: A letter from the nominee detailing their qualifications and achievements.
 - Supporting Letter: A letter from a faculty or professional supervisor.
- Curriculum Vitae (CV): A CV outlining the nominee's professional experiences.