

College of Social and Behavioral Sciences Study Abroad Award

An international experience will help advance your career goals, prepare you to be competitive in a global environment, and open new horizons for you to become a lifelong learner.

CSBS is prepared to assist you in choosing an international experience in the college and assist you in meeting the cost of studying abroad. CSBS Study Abroad Awards, which range from $250 to $500 (while funds are available), are made possible through the generous support of our alumni and friends for studying abroad through CSBS organized or supported programs. In many instances, you can study abroad for the same cost as studying at UNI. Students may be able to apply their federal and state financial aid toward academic study abroad programs. Contact the UNI Financial Aid Office at 273-2700 or visit <http://finaid.uni.edu>. The UNI Study Abroad Center also offers funding to address expenses related to studying abroad, visit <http://uni.edu/studyabroad/> for more information.
