Psychology Volunteer/Internship Poster Ideas

Here is some information you can include in your poster. You can decide what order to put it in, what boxes and headings to use, and what to include/not include. Pictures are great, but make sure you have permission to use them!

Important: Ask your academic advisor to give you editorial feedback on your poster before you have it printed.

Top Banner:
Agency/Organization where you worked, volunteered, or observed
Your name, your major(s) and minor(s)
UNI Logo
Agency/Organization logo

Introduction:
Your position
Hours, pay, course credit
On-the-job training

Mission of the Organization:
This can be a direct quote from their website or other materials

What You Did:
Duties, Special Projects, Typical Daily Schedule, etc.

Academic Section:
Psychological research that informs informed your work
Definitions of key terms, summary of key results

What you learned:
How you applied your knowledge of your discipline (e.g., psychology) to your internship
What you learned about your discipline (e.g., psychology) during your internship
Best part of the experience, most challenging part of the experience
How this experience will help you in the future (grad school, career)

Advice for future interns in this position:

References:

Acknowledgments: Academic and field supervisors, other people who helped you in your position